

RN-BSN Completion Courses: 30 credits/11 classes

| | |
|--------------|---|
| NUR 2351 (3) | Transitions into Professional Practice in the Mercy & Jesuit Traditions |
| NUR 3256 (3) | Leadership in Nursing Practice |
| NUR 2120 (3) | Nursing Informatics |
| NUR 4226 (3) | Applied Statistics for Nursing |
| NUR 4500 (3) | Nursing Research & Practice |
| HLH 2550 (3) | Population Health & Epidemiology |
| ETH 3580 (3) | Health Care Ethics |
| NUR 4241 (3) | Patient Safety & Quality Improvement in Nursing Practice |
| NUR 4246 (1) | Integration Seminar for BSN Completion |
| NUR 4300 (3) | Community Health Nursing |
| NUR 4350 (2) | Community Health Nursing Practicum |

Nursing Supportive Core Classes (fulfilled by the MTA or taken separately)

| | |
|----------|-----------------------------|
| BIO 2300 | Anatomy & Physiology I |
| BIO 2310 | Anatomy & Physiology Lab |
| BIO 2320 | Anatomy & Physiology II |
| BIO 2330 | Anatomy & Physiology II Lab |
| PYC 1000 | Intro Psychology |
| SOC 1000 | Intro Sociology |
| 3 Credit | Science Elective |

- University core requirements are waived when the (Michigan Transfer Agreement (MTA) is met. MTA is confirmed by the community college.
- University core requirements are fulfilled if entering with a bachelor's degree. The MTA is not needed.
- Students should work with their advisors to ensure they meet the 126-credit hour requirement for graduation

Minimum credits to be earned at Detroit Mercy: 30

Licensure credit awarded: 46

Maximum transferrable credits: 96 (Community college, university and licensure credit combined)

Total required credits for graduation with BSN: 126