MERCY NURSING HERITAGE TOUR

TRAVEL TO ENGLAND AND IRELAND WHERE MERCY NURSING BEGAN

On the occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the founding of Mercy College of Detroit and the nursing degree program, join MCD and McAuley School of Nursing (UDM) alumni and friends to tour the historical sites of Mercy Nursing.

May 23-31, 2016

May 23—25  London/Bermondsey
May 25—31  Dublin & Cork

$1,979*

*Based on Double Occupancy; Single rooms for additional $750.

*Airfare to/from London or Dublin not included.

Travel with two Sisters of Mercy who are nurses and nurse-educators at the University of Detroit Mercy, McAuley School of Nursing.

Sister Charlotte Young, RSM, MSN earned her diploma in nursing from Mercy Central School of Nursing and her BSN from Mercy College of Detroit. She was on the faculty of MCD and now serves on the MSON Advisory Board.

Sister Judith Mouch, RSM, MSN has taught at Mercy College of Detroit School of Nursing and is currently teaching at the UDM McAuley School of Nursing (MSON).

For more information and registration details, contact Sister Char at cyoung@mercywmw.org.

Above: Sister Mary Clare Moore, RSM, left of Florence Nightingale who nursed together in the Crimea War (1853-1856). The history of Mercy Nursing began with the founding of the first House of Mercy in 1827 by Catherine McAuley in Dublin, Ireland.
Price Includes:

- Meals:
  - 5 dinners
  - Lunch at Mercy International Centre (Dublin)
  - All breakfasts

- Transportation:
  - Train from London to Holyhead, Wales
  - Ferry from Wales to Dublin
  - Round trip train to Cork
  - In-country travel to sites

- Accommodations: All 4 Star hotels; double occupancy
  - 2 nights at Kensington Close (London)
  - 3 nights at Trinity City Hotel (Dublin)
  - 1 night at Clarion Hotel (Cork City Center)
  - 2 nights at O’Callaghan Alexander Hotel (Dublin)
  - Single occupancy for additional $750 USD

- England/London:
  - Guided tours
  - Florence Nightingale Museum and Walking Tour
  - Archives at the Convent of Mercy at Bermondsey, England (Sisters from Bermondsey nursed in the Crimean War)

- Ireland/Dublin and Cork
  - Mercy International Centre (Catherine McAuley’s House of Mercy)
  - National Rehab Hospital in Dun Laoghaire (formerly known as Kingstown)
  - The Mater Hospital
  - Guided tour of parts of Dublin and Cork
  - Glenn da Locha/St. Kevin’s (8th C Monastery ruins)
  - Evening at Johnnie Fox’s: Traditional Irish pub/music/dance show

- Cork:
  - Mercy Hospital
  - Guided city tour
  - Blarney Castle
  - Free time to enjoy Dublin and Cork

- Airfare to/from London and Dublin is not included in price

- Price is effective Sept. 1, 2015 and is subject to change based on financial fluctuations, number of participants and until the final payment is made.

---

GENERAL INFORMATION

- $500 non-refundable deposit due by January 25, 2016
- Full balance due March 28, 2016
- Travel insurance is necessary.
- U.S. Passports must be valid through November 2016.
- Tour begins with dinner in London on May 23.
- Plan to land at Gatwick or Heathrow Airport.
  - Suggestions for transportation to Kensington Close Hotel (Wrights Lane, Kensington London) will be given upon registration.
- Tour ends after breakfast in Dublin the morning of May 31.

---

Letter from Florence Nightingale to Sr. Mary Clare Moore

“… you were far above me in fitness for the General Superintendency, both in worldly talent of administration, and far more in the spiritual qualifications which God values in a superior….”

---

Catherine McAuley